

DATED 1 October 2024

SAFESTORE HOLDINGS PLC

TERMS OF REFERENCE OF THE REMUNERATION COMMITTEE

SAFESTORE HOLDINGS PLC

TERMS OF REFERENCE OF THE REMUNERATION COMMITTEE

(As approved by the Board of Directors of Safestore Holdings plc (the "Company") on 1 October 2024

1. MEMBERSHIP

- 1.1 The Remuneration Committee (the "Committee") shall comprise not fewer than three non-executive directors of the Company, to be selected by the Board, on the recommendation of the Nomination Committee in consultation with the Chair of the Committee, who are all independent in character and judgement and free from any relationships or circumstances which are likely to affect, or could appear to affect, the Committee member's judgement.
- 1.2 The Chair of the Board may also be a member, but not Chair, of the Committee if he or she was considered independent on appointment as Chair of the Board. The Board must from time to time review the composition of the Committee to ensure that membership of the Committee rotates amongst the Company's independent non-executive directors. Membership of the Committee shall be for a period of up to three years extendable by no more than two additional three-year periods, so long as members (other than the Chair of the board, if he or she is a member of the Committee) continue to be independent.
- 1.3 The Chair of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board. The individual should be an independent non-executive director and should have served on a remuneration committee for at least 12 months prior to their appointment as Committee Chair.
- 1.4 In the absence of the Committee Chair the remaining members present shall elect one of themselves to chair the meeting who would qualify under these terms of reference to be appointed to that position by the Board. The chair of the Board shall not be chair of the Committee.
- 1.5 If any member of the Committee is unable to act for any reason, the Chair of the Committee may appoint any other independent non-executive director of the Company to act as his alternate.

2. SECRETARY

The Company Secretary or his or her nominee shall act as the secretary of the Committee and will ensure that the Committee receives information and papers in a timely manner to enable full and proper consideration to be given to the issues.

3. QUORUM

The quorum necessary for meetings of the Committee is two of its members present throughout the meeting in person or by telephone. A duly convened meeting of the Committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by the Committee.

4. MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet at least three times in each year and at such other times as the Chair of the Committee shall require. Any of the Committee members may request a meeting of the Committee if he or she considers it necessary, to be arranged by the secretary.

- 4.1 Only members of the Committee are entitled to attend Committee meetings. However, other individuals such as the Chief Executive, the Chief Financial Officer, the HR Director, Company Secretary and external advisers may be invited to attend for all or part of any meeting as and when appropriate.

5. NOTICE OF MEETINGS

- 5.1 Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date together with an agenda of items to be discussed, shall be forwarded to each member of the Committee, any other person required to attend and all other non-executive directors, generally no later than five working days before the date of the meeting. Supporting papers shall be sent to Committee members and to other attendees as appropriate, at the same time.

6. MINUTES OF MEETINGS

- 6.1 The secretary shall minute the proceedings and resolutions of all Committee meetings, including the names of those present and in attendance.
- 6.2 Draft minutes of Committee meetings shall be circulated promptly to all members of the Committee and, once agreed, to all members of the Board and the Company Secretary, unless in the opinion of the Committee Chair it would be inappropriate to do so.

7. DUTIES

The Committee shall:

- 7.1 make recommendations to the Board on the Company's remuneration policy framework and the remuneration policy for executive directors, senior management and the Chair of the Board and its cost (the definition of 'senior management' for this purpose is the Executive Committee, including the company secretary). The remuneration of non-executive directors shall be a matter for the Chair and the executive members of the Board. No director or manager shall be involved in any decisions as to their own remuneration;
- 7.2 take into account the pay policies for employees as a whole, and all factors which it deems necessary when recommending the remuneration policy. The Committee shall review wider workforce remuneration and related policies and the alignment of incentives and rewards with culture, taking these into account when setting policy for executive directors' remuneration. Executive directors' and senior management remuneration shall be designed to promote the long-term success of the Company. Performance related elements should be transparent, stretching and rigorously applied;
- 7.3 when determining executive director remuneration policy and practice, address the following: clarity, simplicity, risk, predictability, proportionality and alignment to culture;

- 7.4 in determining remuneration policy , give due regard to any relevant legal requirements, the provisions and recommendations in the Code and the Financial Conduct Authority's Listing Rules (the "Listing Rules"), Prospectus Rules and the Disclosure and Transparency Rules as well as take into consideration guidance of the investment association (“IA”) and any other applicable rules, as appropriate, and take care to recognise and manage conflicts of interest and to exercise independent judgement when receiving views from executive directors or senior management, or consulting the chief executive about such arrangements. The objective of such policy shall be to attract, retain and motivate executive management of the quality required to run the company successfully, having regard to views of shareholders and other stakeholders;
- 7.5 review the ongoing appropriateness and relevance of the remuneration policy;
- 7.6 within the terms of the approved policy, determine on behalf of the Board specific remuneration packages for each of the executive directors, senior management including the company secretary and the Chair of the Board, including pension rights, and any compensation payments;
- 7.7 consider and determine other provisions of the service agreement to be entered into with any executive director (including the term, any notice period and compensation commitment on early termination) and ensure that any payments that may be made under such provisions do not reward poor performance and that the duty to mitigate loss is fully recognised;
- 7.8 agree the policy for authorising claims for expenses from the Chief Executive and Chair;
- 7.9 approve the design of, and determine the targets for any schemes of performance related remuneration for executive directors and senior management and be responsible for determining the outcomes from the performance targets and consequent payments or vesting. In designing such schemes, following the provisions in the Code; schemes should include provisions that would enable the use of discretion to override formulaic outcomes and allow the company to recover sums paid or withhold the payment of any sum, and specify the circumstances in which it would be appropriate to do so;
- 7.10 determine an appropriate balance between fixed and performance-related, immediate and deferred remuneration. Performance conditions, including non-financial metrics where appropriate, should be relevant, stretching and designed to promote the long - term success of the Company;
- 7.11 consider whether the executive directors and senior management should be eligible for annual bonuses and/or benefits under long-term incentive schemes;
- 7.12 consider the pension consequences and associated costs to the Company of basic salary increases and other changes in remuneration, especially for executive directors and senior management close to retirement;
- 7.13 consider where to position the Company relative to other companies and to be aware what comparable companies are paying, taking account of relative performance, using such comparisons with caution and avoiding paying more than is necessary;

- 7.14 be sensitive to the wider scene, including pay and employment conditions elsewhere in the Group, especially when determining annual salary increases;
- 7.15 ensure that provisions regarding disclosure of information relating to directors' remuneration including, where required by law, the directors' remuneration policy and its implementation, as set out in The Large and Medium-sized Companies and Groups (Accounts and Reports) (Amendment) Regulations 2008 (as amended) (the "Regulations"), the Companies Act 2006, the Listing Rules, the UK Corporate Governance Code and all other relevant laws and regulations (each as amended from time to time), are fulfilled and to produce report(s) on the directors' remuneration including, where required, the directors' remuneration policy and its implementation, which will form part of the Company's Annual Report;
- 7.16 ensure that the report(s) referred to in paragraph 7.17 above are put to shareholders for approval as required by the Regulations, the Companies Act 2006 and the Listing Rules;
- 7.17 where required by law to do so, ensure that any remuneration payment or payment for loss of office to any current or former Chair or executive director is consistent with the most recent directors' remuneration policy that has been approved by shareholders. The directors' remuneration policy should be amended and approved by shareholders before any payment that is inconsistent with the existing policy can be made as required by the Companies Act 2006; and
- 7.18 be responsible for establishing the selection criteria, selecting, appointing and setting the terms of reference for any remuneration consultants who advise the Committee and for obtaining reliable, up-to-date information about remuneration in other companies.
- 7.19 work and liaise as necessary with other board committees, ensuring the interaction between committees and with the board is reviewed regularly.

8. REPORTING RESPONSIBILITIES

- 8.1 The Committee Chair shall report formally to the Board on its proceedings after each meeting on all matters within its duties and responsibilities.
- 8.2 The Committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed.
- 8.3 As referred to in paragraphs 7.17 and 7.18 above, the Committee shall produce reports relating to the directors' remuneration which will form part of the Company's Annual Report including a description of its work in line with the requirements of the UK Corporate Governance Code and shall ensure such reports are put to shareholders for approval as required by the relevant law.
- 8.4 The Committee Chair shall maintain contact as required with the Company's principal shareholders about remuneration. The Committee Chair shall attend the Annual General Meeting to respond to any shareholder questions on the Committee's activities.
- 8.5 If the Committee has appointed remuneration consultants, the consultant should be identified in the annual report alongside a statement about any other connection it has with the company or individual directors.

9. OTHER

The Committee shall have access to sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties, including access to the company secretariat for advice and assistance as required, and be provided with appropriate and timely training . The Committee shall, at least once a year, review its own performance, constitution and terms of reference to ensure it is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the Board for approval. In addition, the performance of the Chair of the Committee should be evaluated by seeking the views of the non- executive directors.

10. AUTHORITY

10.1 The Committee is authorised by the Board to obtain information on the remuneration of any employee of the Company or any of its subsidiary undertakings, and to obtain the advice and assistance of any of the Company's executives provided their role in providing such advice and assistance is clearly separated from their role within the business.

10.2 The Committee is authorised by the Board to investigate remuneration paid to directors of other companies which are considered to be relevant (e.g. those of a similar size in a comparable industry sector in the UK).

10.3 The Committee is authorised by the Board to obtain, at the Company's expense, any legal or other independent professional advice as it deems necessary to fulfil its responsibilities and to secure the attendance of any person with relevant experience and expertise at Committee meetings if it considers this appropriate. The Committee shall exercise independent judgment when evaluating the advice of such external third parties.

10.4 The shall have full authority to commission any reports or surveys which it deems necessary to help it fulfil its obligations, and shall exercise independent judgement when evaluating the advice of such external third parties.
